

SECOND TRIAL OF WOMAN

Charged With the Murder of Sixteen-Year-Old Servant Girl—History of the Case Given.

(Herald Special.)

Flandreau, S. D., May 29.—Much interest is manifested here in the case of Mrs. Emma Kaufmann, whose second trial for the alleged murder of Agnes Polreis, a 16-year-old girl who was in her employ as a servant, is docketed to begin in the Moody county circuit court next Tuesday. The case was brought here on change of venue from Sioux Falls.

Mrs. Kaufmann is the wife of Moses Kaufmann, who has made a fortune in the brewery business in Sioux Falls, and is prominent in politics. For nearly three years Mrs. Kaufmann has been at liberty, in bonds of $25,000. At one time she was in grave danger of a physical collapse, but recently has shown much improvement.

The first trial of Mrs. Kaufmann resulted in her conviction. The verdict was due largely to the testimony of Peter Erickson, a former hired man of the Kaufmanns, who testified that he had seen Mrs. Kaufmann poke the Polreis girl in the ribs with a broom-stick and that one day he entered the house and found the girl lying on the floor in a pool of water. Mrs. Kaufmann, he said, told him she had put hot water on the servant, trying to get her up. At another time, he testified, he noticed that the skin had peeled off the lower portion of the girl's limbs. Mrs. Kaufmann, he said, told him of having forced the girl to bathe her feet in ashes soaked with water.

Miss Polreis entered the employ of Mrs. Kaufmann on February 18, 1906, a few weeks after the family arrived in South Dakota from Poland, and only a little more than three months before she died in a Sioux Falls hospital from numerous wounds, bruises and cuts which are alleged to have been inflicted by Mrs. Kaufmann. When she entered the Kaufmann household the girl is said to have been robust in health and spirit.

The alleged crime might never have been discovered had not a young daughter of William Moeller, an intimate friend of the dead girl, observed bruises on the body. She was so persistent that after the funeral the body was exhumed. Many gashes and bruises were disclosed. The cuts were ragged and apparently made by some blunt instrument. On the legs were and that Mrs. Kaufmann threw boiling water on her.

The thought that a Polish servant child should live and that her own little girl had to die, it is charged, drove Mrs. Kaufmann into fits of insane cruelty. Intense feeling was aroused against Mrs. Kaufmann at the time of her arrest. Two hundred society women threatened to dynamite her home if she was not sent to jail. Since her liberation on bail she has resided for the most of the time away from Sioux Falls.

WOMAN, LOVELY WOMAN

But Alas, Without Beautiful Hair No Woman Can Be Handsome.

A great many newspapers and magazines are printing pages on how a woman can be beautiful and keep beautiful.

And everyone, as you can see for yourself, admits that no woman can be really beautiful unless she has lustrous and luxuriant hair.

The women of Paris are, as a rule, beautiful and keep beautiful, and a careful American observer who has traveled much claims that their beauty is due to their knowledge of how to keep their hair luxuriant, which they do by using a superior hair tonic.

Many American women are as wise as their French sisters, and that is why Parisian Sage, the quick acting and greatest of all hair restorers and tonics, is now having such a tremendous sale in America.

We ask every woman reader of this paper to give this marvelous hair beautifier a thorough trial, and we gladly make them this liberal offer:

WELCOMES BRAVE URI

Chief of Staff of the Japanese Navy Being Welcomed at Washington By Officials and Others.

(Herald Special.)

Washington, D. C., May 29.—Washington has extended a hearty welcome to Vice Admiral Baron Sotokichi Uriu, chief of staff of the Japanese navy, who is spending several weeks in this vicinity prior to his departure for Europe. Vice Admiral Uriu is a graduate of the Annapolis naval academy and in recognition of this fact the alumni of the academy have arranged to give him a dinner tonight at the Metropolitan club. Monday there will be a reception in his honor given by Representative J. W. Weeks of Massachusetts, who was a classmate of the admiral's at Annapolis. Later in the week he will attend the graduation exercises at the naval academy.

Vice Admiral Uriu is regarded as one of the world's greatest naval authorities. After his course at the Annapolis academy he was detailed to the Naval College of Japan in 1893, and appointed a member of the committee for compiling a gunnery textbook. Having seen service afloat in several ships, he was appointed aide to the Minister of Marine, promoted lieutenant commander and detailed to the general staff department. He was appointed captain of the Akagi in 1891, chief of the Yokosuka Naval Barracks and naval attaché at Paris in 1892. On his recall from France he was appointed superintendent of men-of-war and ordnance construction, and his promotion to rear admiral and ap

Mississippi Mayors Hold Meeting.

(Herald Special.)

Gulfport, Miss., May 29.—Governor Noel and Mayor Crowder of Jackson were the chief speakers today at the first annual convention held by the Mississippi League of Mayors. Mayor Foote of Gulfport welcomed the visitors and Mayor Donald of Hattiesburg responded. Several important municipal problems were discussed at the two sessions held during the day.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lameness, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by Bratton Drug Co.

To Unveil Civil War Shaft.

Denver, Colo., May 29.—Memorial day in Denver this year is to be made notable by the unveiling of a handsome state monument in memory of the Colorado veterans of the Civil War. The monument, which has been erected in front of the state capitol, consists of a large granite base surmounted by a bronze figure of a dismounted cavalryman. The statue was designed by Captain John W. Howland, the artist, who was a member of the First Colorado Cavalry during the early sixties. The granite base is faced with bronze tablets on which are inscribed the names of the battles in which the Colorado troops took part.

This is a more dangerous disease than is generally presumed. It will be a surprise to many to learn that more deaths result from it than from scarlet fever. Pneumonia often results from it. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough and always with the best results. Delbert McKelg of Harlan, Iowa, says of it: "My boy took whooping cough when nine months old. He had it in the winter. I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which proved good. I cannot recommend it too highly." For sale by Bratton Drug Co.
